Isabella Lam

Submitted by Chris Kramer

Isabella Lam has excelled in each philosophy class she has taken, including Honors philosophy. Her writing demonstrates a deep understanding of difficult philosophical concepts, but more importantly, a genuine interest in learning more about issues that affect everyone today. This is also revealed with her critical, collaborative, and open conversations among peers and faculty, as an officer for the Philosophy Club, or as a lead on the Ethics Debate team. Isabella is indubitably one of the best philosophy students we have ever had at SBCC.
